

EDCTSA October 4th Meeting

Jackie Acha called the meeting to order.

Members present: Jackie Acha, Pam McKnight, Pat Lanier, Mary Ann Cabbage, Lisa Graf, Jen Collins, Deb Swain, Pat Mulligan, Paula Salter, Sue Meadows, Shari Weis-Riojas

Minutes from the August 30th meeting were reviewed and approved.

Treasurer's Report: $2,277.35 is the current balance.

Old Business:

- Dressage 101 was successful. Mary Haskins-Gurganus, Trish Murphy, and Ruth Cox each contributed to its success. It was decided to give Trish Murphy a gift certificate ($25.00 to Transitions) for her role as a volunteer.
- Jean Luc Raffle-Mary Ann Cabbage was the winner of the raffle drawing!!

New Business:

- Harvest Moon USDF Regionals
 - Sponsor Class-$50.00 by the club.
 - Highest Scoring NC Rider-also sponsored by the club.
 - Discussion was held about awarding the recipient with a $50 Dover gift certificate and a picture frame with engraving. In addition, an EDCTSA shirt and cap will be included as part of the award.
 - Volunteers: Several members are volunteering.
- Dressage at the Preserve has been postponed due to flooding. October 23rd is the new date for this show.
- Shari's show is November 6th. The need for volunteers was discussed and several members volunteered.
- Awards Banquet: Jen reported on several possible locations: Tony's in Jacksonville, which has a private room and Courthouse Café in downtown Jacksonville. Tricia Hooten will be given this information and a decision will be made at a later date.

- Sue Bothern may use the new tests at her show. Discussion about the new tests occurred.
- A suggestion was made for the next meeting to be held at Flounders. Jackie will check on this location.

Mary Ann made a motion to close the meeting and Lisa seconded it.