  - Physical therapy for the rider-Sue Morgan
- ❖ Ideas for adult riders
  - Fix-a-test clinic with Angelea Walkup (she has offered to do this clinic as a part of the Learner judge program)-possible location-Pam's farm
  - Pat suggested fund-raisers such as selling items with club logo and another suggestion was a 50/50 auction. Pat also suggested having a variety of inexpensive items on hand with club logo to give to new members or others that volunteer their services to the club. A $100 was suggested for this and Pat is to create a price-list of possibilities.
- ❖ Newsletter-a motion carried that would require a member-only password to access through the website. Also, a new addition to the website that Libby has created is called "Braggin' Rights"
- Old Business:
  - $100.00 donated by Ruth to purchase WEG DVDs and C. Morelli DVDs (The System) for the Christine Ipock Fund. Jen Collins has ordered the WEG DVDs? Jackis has one of the C.M. tapes to give to Shari for the library.
  - Shari will write a brief description and announcement of these donations in Christine's honor/memory.
  - Ruth Cox also donated a book-The Spanish Riding School.
  - Pat Mulligan reported that the annual audit of the financial books was fine.
  - Scribing for Dummies-Lisa will e-mail out USDF suggestions. May post on website.
- ❖ New Business:
  - Motion passed that $10.00 discount off of the $75.00 show application fee for NCDCTA recognition be applied when ribbons are paid for by the show organizer.
  - Motion passed that show organizers must give the $100 deposit to Vice-president in order to receive the show box with ribbons and tests.
  - Another suggestion was made for a club recipe book...Pat M. is not in charge. Robin suggested a section on equine treats.
- ❖ Next meeting on March 7th @ Schlotsky's.
