

EDCTSA Meeting

November 7, 2011

- Minutes were read and approved.
- Treasurer's Report-accepted.
- Members present: Mary Ann Cubbage, Laura McGinnis, Shari Weiss-Riojas, Patricia Hooten, Lexie Hooten, Lisa Graf, Paula Salter, Catherine Marks, Gena Taylor, Pat Mulligan, Jackie Acha, Amy Acha, Sue Morgan, Pam McKnight, Pat Lanier.
- Old Business:
  - Shari purchased the WEG DVDs for the C. Ipock Memorial.
  - Jackie reported that she has a meeting with Carolina Pines Country Club this week to determine location of the banquet-probably on January 21st.
  - Pink Ribbon Show-Shari reported on its success and thanked the volunteers.
  - Cookbook-Pam and Shari have produced EDCTSA's FIRST cookbook! The cost is approximately $15.00 and we may sell them for $20.00. Pam suggested that we have the cookbooks ready for the Banquet.
  - Nominations for next year's board:

Secretary-Laura McGinnis is a possibility

Lisa will send out an e-mail to solicit nominations for next year's board.

-Essay topic for this year's scholarship: Why do you compete or not compete?

- New Business
  - Tricia reported on her upcoming show on Nov. 19th and asked for volunteers.
  - Tricia also discussed the possibility of EDCTSA becoming a GMO of USDF after attempting to work with NCDCTA's JR club. Lisa shared that she would investigate and discuss some of our issues/concerns with NCDCTA. We will also investigate the GMO option/requirements.

-Fix-A-Test with Janine Malone. Sue Bothern has volunteered to organize this clinic on March 11th, the day after her show. Lisa is going to check on Janine's fee.

-Dressage for Everyone-Lisa, Paula, and Pat Lanier volunteered to sell EDCTSA merchandise at this clinic on Nov. 12-13.

-Meeting for December in J'ville-Paula will check on a restaurant.

-Meeting was adjourned at 8:30.